Hi Leah,

Happy New Year, I hope you had a nice holiday season.

Here's one of the answers I received about disincorporation.

I'm still working on getting more information about the Metro funds, I just got back to the office today and it's on my to-do list.

Talk soon,

Diana

Subject: FW: Question

Hi Diana,

You asked me if the City of Lake Oswego had an IGA with the City of Rivergrove over disincorporation. The answer is no such IGA or agreement exists. See below from the Lake Oswego City Manager and City Attorney.

Thank you.

Gary

Gary –

The City Attorney's office says there isn't any agreement. Happy New Year!

Hi Martha –

This issue has come before and we have no such agreement, IGA or otherwise, with Rivergrove about disincorporation.

Thanks,
Cortney

Good Morning!

What an interesting question from Clackamas County! Do either of you know of any agreement that might exist between rivergrove and LO about disincorporation? I don't know that it'd be allowed under current law, but I am curious if there is something.

Thanks!

Martha

Subject: Question

Hi Martha,

Hope all is well with you. Would you please help me answer this question or direct me where to find it:

Does the City of Lake Oswego have an IGA with the City of Rivergrove that if Rivergrove disincorporates, the former city automatically becomes part of the city of Lake Oswego?

A Commissioner is asking me.

Thank you.

Gary
